World Oceans Day 8th June 2020

For 2020, World Oceans Day is growing the global movement to call on world leaders to protect 30% of our blue planet by 2030. This critical need is called 30x30. By safeguarding at least 30% of our ocean through a network of highly protected areas we can help ensure a healthy home for all.

Activity 1—Listen to Mrs Rand read Clem and Crab by Fiona Lumbers. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mmD31vB9Tew>

Activity 2—Write a diary entry from the view point of a dolphin in a littered ocean. Think about the setting, feelings and others around you, using a range of descriptive language

Activity 3—Complete the attached World Oceans Day activity sheets.

Activity 4—Make an ocean animal craft. There are some examples at the side to use or you could be creative and come up with your own!

Activity 5—Pick something about the ocean that interests you and really dive in! Research online, watch documentaries to find out more. Then, spread the word! Tell your friends or family about what you've learned and why keeping our ocean healthy is so important.

Unit 6 - j w z

Zig and Zog

Liz was in bed. Zig and Zog sat up and got off the bed. It was fun.

Zig ran to a red bus and sat on it. It had jam on it. It was not fun.

Zog sat on the big jet but it was wet. It was not fun.

"Let's run and job." It was fun. Wham, bam. Zog ran in to Zig.

Zig and Zog got up on the bed. The sun was up.

Zig and Zog had a nap on the bed. Liz sat up.

Key:

 Follow the direction of the arrows around the village with your adult.

 What can you see at the star points? Is this a familiar place?
